Dear Bob,

I just wanted to write you a letter thanking you for everything you have done for me and my career.

Prior to our meeting, I had been tragically unsuccessful in my efforts to move my career forward. I had over six years of solid experience, I was responsible, had a strong track record of successful marketing and advertising programs, but lacked the ability to cut through the clutter and get noticed.

With your guidance and supervision, I was able to make myself more marketable and through your networking landed an interview with one of the largest agencies in St. Louis. Your continued support through the interviewing process kept my confidence high and ultimately earned me the opportunity I had been working for.

I have been with Momentum for the almost 3 weeks now and can't tell you how happy I am. I see a future in advertising and a career with Momentum that I wasn't able to see in my previous position.

Thank you so much for helping me to enjoy my job again. It's been years since I've been excited about going to work.

If I can help in anyway, please let me know – I owe you so much!

Sincerely,
Jeremy Cockrell
